

Lesson #4 Judgment Against Other Nations - Isaiah 18:1–22:25

DRAWING NEAR

1. What comes to mind when you hear the word judgment?

Explain.

UNLEASHING THE TEXT

1. Which of the nations and territories mentioned in these chapters do you recognize from the modern world?
2. How can you determine which of these prophecies have already been fulfilled and which are yet to come?

3. What did God command Isaiah to do in chapter 20?

What was the intended purpose?

4. How had Jerusalem rebelled against God as described in Isaiah 22?

REFLECTING ON THE TEXT

1. How does fulfilled prophecy build your confidence in the inerrancy and authority of God's Word?
2. What should we take away from the shocking imagery that God's Word uses to describe sin and its consequences?
3. What specific blessings and privileges do you enjoy in Christ?
4. Are you currently a faithful or an unfaithful steward of the blessings you have?

PERSONAL RESPONSE

1. Considering the great lengths God has gone to in communicating and preserving His Word, how should we respond?
2. What steps can you take this week to more seriously consider your role as a steward of God's blessings?