

Lesson #12 Reviewing Key Principles

1. What has Isaiah's prophecy taught you about the Person and work of Christ?

UNLEASHING THE TEXT

1. What encourages you about the way God has fulfilled Isaiah's prophecies?
Which as-yet unfulfilled prophecies provide similar comfort and assurance?
2. What are some unanswered questions you will pursue further after completing this study?
3. How has studying the book of Isaiah added to your understanding of Jesus?
4. Why is it critical for us to understand that God is aware of our lives and cares about us on a personal level?

PERSONAL RESPONSE

1. Why was the atoning work of Christ—described in Isaiah's prophecies—necessary for the redemption of God's people?
Explain.
2. In what areas of your life have you been most convicted during this study?
What exact things will you do to address these convictions? Be specific.
3. What have you learned about God's nature and character throughout this study?
How should that knowledge affect your everyday life?
4. In what areas do you hope to grow spiritually over the coming weeks and months?
What can you do to support and stimulate that growth?
5. If you would like to continue in your study of the Old Testament, read the next title in this series: Jeremiah & Lamentations: Judgment and Grace. (Or, join us here for a study of the "Parables of Jesus".